JENNIFER'S
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY • PINOT NOIR
2007

VINEYARD CHARACTER

Named in honor of co-proprietor Jennifer Jackson-Hartford, this wine is defined by its power, concentration of fruit and structure. A wine that is built to age, Jennifer's proves that not all Pinot Noirs are shy, retiring, delicate souls. Jennifer's Pinot is sourced from vineyards in the Sebastopol Hills region of the Russian River Valley AVA – smack-in-the-middle of the windy and very cool, Petaluma Wind Gap. The dark color and intense black fruit aroma and flavor profile are a testament to the terroir of this site.

TASTING NOTES

Jennifer's Pinot Noir is opaque and powerful. It features violets, blackberry and boysenberry in the nose and on the palate. It is ripe, dense and solid with fine tannins and a silky mouth-feel. French oak imparts flavors of white chocolate and roasted coffee to the finish. Due to the challenges of farming in such a cold and windy site, Jennifer's is only made in the best vintages.
